FORMER RICHMOND MAN TELLS OF INCIDENTS OF WAR ALONG BATTLE FRONT

L. G. Bonzagni, former city treasurer and former cashier of the First National bank of this city, is in France with Pershing's Expeditionary forces. He is in the Quartermaster's department of the aviation corps and received his training at Waco, Texas, but has been across in France for several months now and according to the letters which have been received from him he is enjoying his experience very much. He writes to his sister, Mrs. C. Bolla, of Concord, as follows:

My dear sister Carrie:

Your very welcome letter dated May 7th received a few days ago and as I have a little time to myself, I will write you a little of the news from "over here."

Decoration day, for instance, was a very interesting day here. The morning ceremonies consisted of a long parade led by our 31-piece band, followed by a number of French soldiers garbed in their very neat uniforms and then by our boys. They marched to the cemetery and there the program was followed after the very appropriate formation, etc. First a mass was celebrated for the repose of the souls of our lost boys by our Catholic Chaplain. The altar was built of a few plain boards. Then the Secretary of the Y. M. C. A. read a proclamation made by the President fitting the occasion and also delivered a very appropriate address.

A French major then addressed his soldiers in his tongue and, to say the least, the short address contained most wonderful expressions. I was fortunate in being able to understand it and if translated into our language, you would say it was a real master-piece. Our band played the French and American airs. This all took place among the graves of our departed boys, surrounded by a most vividly green forest. At a distance, a field covered with blooming clover soon caught the eye and the singig orioles, cuckoos and wrens went well with the soft strains of our band. One of the most touching ing orioles, cuckoos and wrens went our dear and beloved Red Cross ladies, also in formation, placed a small boquet of flowers over each grave.

We are naturally hardened to many things in this life, but such ceremonies are very touching, and as far as I am concerned, I shall never forget this occasion. I pictured our little plot in the Alhambra cemetery and the ceremonies held there in the past years by the old war veterans and the prominent citizens of the town.

As the day was a holiday, I took advantage of the afternoon and went to a nearby village. I was exceedingly fortunate to be in the company of a lad who had been in certain parts of the place before. He escorted me to a most beautiful chateau, and I never saw anything to equal it in our dear old Golden Gate Park. The flowers, small rivers, fish, birds, etc., were most beautiful. After promenading a few hours we enjoyed a nice little dinner and then returned to our "Home."

I am very glad to hear that your Ernest is enjoying the army life. I hope it will be my good fortune to meet him here some day, as I met young Hoffman and our former neighbor, Netherton, of Martinez. I had a long talk with Ntherton yesterday; he is feeling fine. I am in the very best of health, having gained 14 pounds since arriving in sunny France.

I am now working in the personnel office where I handle pay rolls and feel as though I am back in my former banking days. The work is very interesting and as near as I can see it, advancements are quite sure and good. I might also relieve you of a certain amount of anxiety by telling you I am some distance from the firing line and in perfect comfort. My former experiences, however, will be related when I return as I shall endeavor to spend a few days refreshing my memory. I will preserve the address of Agrdon Randall and hope to meet him some day. It will be my good fortune to visit with uncle "Over-here" in the near future.

Well Carrie, as I must now return to my duties, I will say bye-bye for this time. With love to you and yours, I am

Your loving brother,
LOUIE.

LOST HIS EAR IN FIGHTING STEVEDORE

Frank Erickson, of this city spent Sunday in San Francisco and on his way home last night indulged in a row with John Norden, a stevedore, which later turned into a fight. Norden proved to be an unfair fighter and while the men were scuffling on the pavement, the latter bit off Erickson's ear.

Erickson took his ear to the police station as exhibit A and exhibited to the desk sergeant when he requested a warrant for Norden's arrest. The latter was promptly taken in custody on a charge of mayhem and will be held for trial.

KNITTING CLUB TO MEET TOMORROW EVENING

The W. B. A. of the Maccabees will meet as a knitting club tomorrow evening at the home of Mrs. Felsenthal, 501 Pennsylvania avenue. The ladies are requested to bring along their knitting needles.

This meeting is designed not only for Maccabee ladies but everybody who can knit and all will be cordially welcomed.

EVERY PERSON SHOULD LOOK THRIFT IN FACE

Every individual must look this thrift question squarely in the face. If he does not meet the issue fully and promptly, he is not doing all that he can to win the war.

THEY ARE STANDING BY YOU

Our Army and our Navy are standing between you and the Hun. Show that you appreciate what that means by saving to the utmost of your ability.

HUN U-BOAT OPERATING NEAR SHORE OF AMERICA

WASHINGTON, July 22.—All along the Atlantic coast today search is being made for German submarines. All manner of naval craft are assisting in the search. From the various stations great seaplanes are sweeping over the ocean, working in unison with destroyers and submarine chasers. While officials will make no announcement of what has been done, it is known that extreme precautions have been taken to protect shipping and the various coast cities.

The submarines now operating—there is absolutely no information how many there are—are assumed to have been ordered to adopt a policy of frightfulness. The action in trying to torpedo the tug Perah Amboy and her four barges without warning, followed by an indiscriminate shelling of the defenseless craft, has convinced officials here that these submarines will stop at nothing. Every possible effort will be made to locate and sink them.

BARGES SUNK

ORLEANS, Mass., July 22.—An enemy submarine attacked a tow off the easternmost point of Cape Cod yesterday, sank three barges, set a fourth and their tug on fire and dropped four shells on the mainland.

The action lasted an hour and was unchallenged except for two seaplanes from the Chatam aviation station, which circled over the U-boat, causing her to submerge only for a moment, then to reappear and resume firing.

The crews of the tow, numbering fifty-one, and including three women and five children, escaped amid the shell fire in lifeboats.

MANY WITNESSES

Bathers taking their morning dip scurried ashore when shells splashed within a few hundred yards of them. Many of them watched the German exhibition of frightfulness from the beach.

Automobilist stopped their machines on the brow of the sand hills to follow the Teutonic version of the war game play by play.

Scores of the cottagers did not have to come from their plazza chairs to see every detail of the latter drama.

The tug was burned to the water's edge by shell fire, while the barges were sunk by gun fire.

The barges were bound from Gloucester for New York and one was loaded with stone.

THREE WOUNDED

Of the fifty-one persons, including three women and five children on board, three men Captain Charles Ainslie of the barge Langford and John Bolovich and John Vitz, Austrian members of the tug crew, were wounded. Bolovich probably will lose an arm. Vitz had one hand blown off. Captain Ainslie was wounded in both arms by shrapnel.

IS VISITING HER SISTER

Mrs. Glenn Thompson is visiting a sister who resides in Big Valley.

MOONEY LOSES HIS CASE IN HIGH COURT

SAN FRANCISCO, July 22.—Thomas J. Mooney today lost his last appeal in the State Supreme Court, and only executive clemency from Governor Stephens now will save him from the gallows. The court denied Mooney's appeal from the recent decision of Superior Judge Franklin A. Griffin, who refused to vacate the conviction and sentence of Mooney on charges of fraud and malfeasance made by the defense.

FAMOUS GRAND OPERA STAR AT RICHMOND

Patrons of the Richmond Theater today and tomorrow will again have an opportunity to see Pauline Frederick, famous grand opera star in one of her most famous roles. The picture vehicle of the famous star this time is La Tosca, one of the most popular of the grand operas and one in which Miss Frederick's career has been especially noteworthy.

Striking ability has been shown by the actress to put her vivacity and charm into the screen opera productions. Those who saw Carmen will remember her part in that opera. She will be supported by a splendid company of Paramount players.

DR. BLAKE RETURNS FROM FEATHER RIVER

Dr. C. R. Blake, health commissioner of the city, has returned home from his vacation trip to Feather River and reports that he had a delightful summer outing and returns home in great shape to pursue the arduous duties of his office at the city hall and as health officer for the county.

HAS IMPROVED IN HEALTH

S. F. Jenkins, former postmaster of this city, but now residing at Redondo Beach, is greatly improved in health. He has been critically ill anad his daughter, Mrs. Merle Brothers, was called to his bedside. She has returned home and reports that her father is out of danger.

VISITING AT CHANDLER HOME FROM DENVER

Mrs. S. O. Warren and her daughter, Grace Warren of Denver, Colo., are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Chandler, 455 Fourth street. Mrs. Warren is Mrs. Chandler's sister.

MRS. SMITH IS ILL

Mrs. J. P. Smith, of 32 Nevada avenue, who has been quite ill is getting some better, according to reports from her home.

RICHMOND TO GAIN IN THE MERGING OF S. P. AND SANTA FE

Richmond is to gain greatly by the change resulting from Government ownership of railroads, including the Santa Fe systems and is to lose nothing.

Plans have been worked out for carrying the passengers of the Santa Fe into Oakland over the Southern Pacific more in Oakland, but this city will not even lose the trainmen that now make their homes here in large numbers, constituting one of the best elements of Richmond's population. Under the plans all passenger trains will be yarded here, being switched back from Oakland every evening.

The Santa Fe-Richmond Terminal will be used on a still greater scale for freight.

Instead of connection being made with the Southern Pacific where the roads run parallel in the northern part of Richmond, as had been suggested, the connection will be made right in the heart of the city. A spur will be dropped down the embankment of the Oakland branch beginning at Sixth street and connecting with the Southern Pacific main line just east of Twenty third street. This spur will run along the south side of the embankment. Work is to start on it soon.

The passenger trains will have to run back here for all their ice and other supplies that prepare them for their runs. There is plenty of yardage here for them, which is not the case at the Oakland yards of the system.

Greatly increased use of the Santa Fe shops in Richmond is expected under Government control and the policy of centralizing the work is likely. The Pullman shops will also be used to a far greater extent even than now and they may be enlarged.

Richmond never did gain much from the passenger traffic over the Santa Fe through this city, except from the feature of the labor of conductors, brakemen and other trainmen making their homes here. Passengers always went right through to the ferry steamer.

DRUGGISTS MUST HAVE RETAIL LIQUOR LICENSE

All druggists selling alcohol, whether for beverage or non-beverage purposes, are required to take out a retail liquor dealers' license. This was made clear in a telegram received by Internal Revenue Collector Justus S. Wardell from the department in Washington. Changes in the regulations governing alcohol under war conditions raised a doubt in the minds of many druggists in this district as to whether they were subject to the special tax in the use of alcohol in medicinal compounds.

ALLIED TROOPS MAKE GAINS ON ALL FRONTS IN BIG BATTLE NOW RAGING

PARIS, July 22.—The German retreat continues.

After clearing the southern bank of the Marne and capturing Chateau Thierry in a fierce assault, the French and American forces swept on to the Bezu-St. Germain, an advance of over four miles.

The allied advance has continued all along the zone of their great counter offensive—from the Aisne to the Marne River.

The German pivotal position at [illegible] is flanked on the east, and its fall is imminent.

PARIS, July 22—French and American troops broke up strong German counter attacks in the sectors of Grizelles and Bezeu-St. Germain (between the Marne and Ourcq rivers), the French war office announced today. All of the allied positions were maintained intact.

In the zone north of the Ourcq river and between the Marne anad Rheims the Germans limited their activity to artillery firing during the night. This shelling was especially heavy in the sectors of Courton wood and the Bois du Rol.

(Bezeu-St. Germain lies slightly more than four miles north of Chateau Thierry. Grizelles is about three miles northwest of Bezeu-St. Germain.)

WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY ON THE AISNE-MARNE FRONT, July 22.—While the Germans continue to pour in reinforcements, which necessarily slows up our advance to some extent out of Soissons at the same time they are prudently withdrawing supplies and heavy artillery from the southern part of the Aisne-Marne salient northward to a point clear past Soissons. The boches evidently fear an allied advance to the Aisne.

The Americans participated in a [illegible] in the capture of German guns, our men taking the eight-inch pieces mentioned in dispatchs from French headquarters.

There has been terrific fighting in the area southwest of Soissons.

One of our machine gun companies was cut off by the steady fire and fought without food for 24 hours. They sent back a runner who reported at 5 o'clock in the morning.

Volunteers were called for and with two side cars loaded with food they dashed forward to the company position in the face of heavy boche machine gun and rifle fire. The return trip was made in safety.

In two bursts of the hottest kind of fighting, the Americans early this morning forced an exceedingly strong enemy position that had been holding up our advance around the southern edge of the plateau south of Soissons.

OUR AMERICAN POPULATION

Somebody with a penchant for statistics is responsible for the following information, which to say the least, is interesting:

There are 13 million foreign born persons in the United States. One-third of these, nearly 5 million, were born in Germany or in countries allied with Germany.

Thirty-two million or 35 per cent of all our people, half are men of voting age; and only 4 out of every thousand attend school to learn our language.

New York City has 300,000 illiterate immigrants. It has 500,000 who neither understand, write or speak English.

Fifty-six per cent of the population of Cleveland, Ohio, are from Germany.

Seventy-five per cent of Cleveland's population are foreign born or of foreign parentage.

Eighty thousand people in Cleveland are unable to speak English; and 100,000 men of voting age are not naturalized.

The immigrant contributes 85 per cent of the labor used in the slaughtering and meat packing industries, he does seven-tenths of the coal mining, seven-eights of all the work in the woolen mills nine-tenths in the cotton mills manufactures more than half of the shoes, four-fifths of all the furniture, half the collars, cuffs and shirts, half the gloves, half the tobacco and cigars, nineteen twentieth of the sugar.

THE WOMEN'S SALUTE

Should American women salute the American flag?

They want to salute it.

When the flag passes or the Star Spangled Banner music sings down the street, men bare their heads and women in the crowds thrill with the same desire to show patriotism. They long to shout or wave, or bow their heads in reverence.

But no woman does any of these things simply because waving and shouting in public "simply isn't done.

In the laws of convention, however, there is no provision for woman's gesture of salute.

Everyone expects a man to remove his hat when the flag passes—and he does it. Everyone expects a woman to do nothing when the flag passes—and she does it.

But that does not alter the fact that women wish to salute the flag and they should salute it.

Women, as well as men, are active American citizens, with a real part in the war and a real stake in the country.

Not all of them have a voice in government, but most of them have a relative in the army or navy, and most of them have families, or jobs or both, or all three The American flag is their flag and they want to acknowledge and accept its responsibilities as well as claim its protection and glory.

From the American flag women get the same benefits as men, in a larger sense they give the same service to it and feel the same devotion to it.

All that is lacking is a formal universal gesture which shall express women's loyalty as the lifted hat expresses the loyalty of men.

The attempt of German propagandists to use German money with the expectation of shaping the editorial policy of the New York Evening Mail is one more proof that the Germans never did know much about American character.

OUR BRITISH MOTHER

In England where this year thousands of Englishmen for the first time observed our Fourth of July, they have formed an American Blighty league.

"We are bringing together the British mother and the American mother—because we are going to take charge of the American mother's sons," explains the founder of the league.

By taking charge, the Blighty league means taking American boys in England into homes of British fathers and mothers whose own sons are across the channel fighting the enemy of their country and ours. Boys from American cities will be entertained in city homes, farm boys will be invited to spend a few days as the guest of British farmers.

From now on Americans are going to be better neighbors and closer friends with their Anglo-Saxon cousins.

It is to be supposed that Premier Lloyd George's declaration that the colonies of Great Britain are to have a voice in the peace negotiations was not given grudgingly. The world knows and the people of England know that without Canada, Australia and New Zealand, England would have been much less of a factor in the war than she has been.

The Anzacs (Australian-New Zealand army corps) have been among the most gallant fighters in the British armies. At Gallipoli and in France their exploits have attracted more than ordinary notice. The Canadians at Vimy Ridge and along most of the western end of the battle line have in like measure, won renown for their fortitude and valor.

England could not, if she would, withhold representation from these countries in the peace discussions at the end of the war. They have contributed too much toward making a peace parley possible. But after this war is over and peace has become a reality, what voice will the dominions of Great Britain have in the government then?

Lloyd George acknowledges the necessity of an imperial war cabinet one that includes men from Canada and Australia, who are to have a voice in determining the more important decisions of the war.

It is not likely that the people of the dominions will want representation in the peace cabinet which will come after the war. The need of tight co-operation between the colonies and the mother country will have been removed by then, and while England, Canada and Australia will have been brought infinitely closer together by the four years of struggle, the overseas dominions will no doubt find it expedient to return to the pre-war systems of government.

Whatever they desire they will get, however.

An exchange remarks that the letters now headed "somewhere in France" will sound a lot better when they are headed "somewhere in Germany." But why be in haste, brother? Have a little patience until the American boys gets their preliminary work up a bit and they will change the geography of that country over there so fast that it will make us dizzy. You have become pretty well acquainted with the names of the towns over in France even if you cannot pronounce them, but the names of

HERBS

Reliable Herb Specialist. Testimonial

February 7, 1917.

I had a very severe attack of throat and stomach trouble and inflammatory rheumatism. I was confined to my bed for five weeks and could not walk for two months. I can now state that Dr. Wong Him, located at 1588 Webster street, Oakland, has saved my life and made a complete cure.

Dr. Wong Him was formerly at 1263 O'Farrell street, San Francisco.

Somewhere in France

towns and cities in Germany beat them a city block as downright mysteries. You can't even guess what the letters mean and the pronounciation is somewhere between a grunt and a sneeze.

An alarmist mounts to the housetops and proclaims in a loud voice that the world is threatened with a gold shortage. We know it and this isn't the first time, either. It has been threatened with a shortage of gold ever since we can remember—and we're no spring chicken at that. Nine-tenths of the World is perennially and eternally short of gold. It must be the way they are built.

A report from the Ukraine says that anything that looks like money goes there. Anything that looks like food goes in Germany.

Teaching French soldiers how to play baseball is one of the tasks of American Y. M. C. A. war work secretaries in France and it sometimes leads to surprising incidents. A Y. M. C. A. secretary was umpiring and coaching two teams of poilus playing playground ball. The batter took a healthy swing with his small bat and smote the soft ball in a screaming liner straight for the pitcher. The latter protected his face with his hands and the sphere struck him soggily in the chest. The pitcher's expressive features registered surprise and reproach over this so unexpected assault. As for the batter, did he reach first? He did not. He ran straight for the pitcher, embraced him and apoligized for hitting him.

With "Gas masks at the alert," Albert Wiederhold, who formerly sang at Dr. Parkhurst's church in New York, sang to American soldiers at the front. It was in a Y. M. C. A. hut and he says that there was no disturbance except two German planes that came over and forced h's audience to take to cover. He found a use for his tin hat as revealed in his description of his sleeping quarters. "My main trouble was to get my tin hat hung in just the right place to catch the drip, for the roof had not been repaired properly since the last bombardment," he said. "That part taken care of and with one blanket pulled up to keep the rats from running over my face, I slept well."

King George missed the best part of his recent pancake treat at the Y. M. C. A. Eagle Hut in London—he didn't turn 'em personally. Everyone else over there is doing it now. The six Y. M. C. A. cake-bakers were on the verge of prostration after serving 6124 American soldiers and sailors with pancakes in the first fifteen days rush. Then the Eagle Hut secretary had a happy thought. He induced the pancake fiends not only to bake their own, but also to demonstrate with the batter and turn for their hungry buddies. The idea went big, especially as the "Y" retails two mans size cakes with appropriate maple syrup for sixpence.

NEW SPIRIT SEEN

Since Y. M. C. A. secretaries have been with Italian troops a new spirit and better morale is noticed. Italian officers welcome the work of the association.

NEBRASKA JUDGE NOW ENDORSES IT

HON. B. F. WITTINGTON HAS GAINED TWENTY POUNDS BY TAKING TANLAC

One of the distinguishing features of the introduction of Tanlac throughout the country is the large number of prominent men who have felt it their duty to disregard precedent and come forward with their unqualified endorsements of the medicine because of the benefits they have derived from its use.

The latest addition to the list of prominent endorsers is the name of Hon. Benjamin F. Whittington, judge of the Rolston court, South Omaha, Neb. In relating his experience with Tanlac Judge Whittington said:

"The results of Tanlac in my case certainly seem remarkable to me. Before I began taking it my health was broken in many ways and I did not know which way to turn for relief. My liver was all out of fix, I was habitually constipated and bilious. I was so frightfully dizzy most of the time, that I could not stoop over for fear of falling. My kidneys were in bad shape, and I had fearful pains in the small of my back. My appetite seemed to be fairly good, that is I could eat, but my food did not seem to be properly assimilated. Sleep failed to rest me, and I felt tired, languid and wornout all the time. I was pale, and not only felt badly but I looked that way. I had been in this condition for a year and was becoming badly worried because nothing seemed to reach my case.

"I had fallen off twenty pounds in weight as a result of my troubles, but I have gained it all back by using Tanlac and have never felt better in my life. I decided from what I read in the papers about it to try it, and I felt like a new man before I finished my first bottle. So I went right back for another and so on until I took five bottles and now I haven't an ache or a pain and am feeling great. And eat, my gracious! I eat like a farm hand, all I can get. I never saw anything like it. I sleep like a log, and get up in the morning thoroughly refreshed and feel brim full of vim and energy all day long. Now this is just what Tanlac has done for me and I gladly give this statement for what it may be worth to others who are trying to find relief."

Tanlac is sold in Richmond by F. B. La Moine, in Antioch by H. J. Schuman and in Crockett by J. Civiletti.—Advt.

PICTURES EN ROUTE

On transports crossing the Atlantic the Y. M. C. A. is exhibiting motion pictures to fill the leisure hours of the soldiers.

CROQUET IN FRANCE

Croquet is proving a popular game among the French soldiers. It is one of the Y. M. C. A. innovations over there.

BELL-ANS
Absolutely Removes Indigestion. Druggists refund money if it fails. 25c

Equipping American transports with motion picture machines and operators, the Y. M. C. A. has solved the problem of the leisure time of the soldiers crossing the Atlantic Ocean to France. The full Y. M. C. A. program is carried out abroad the transports with the war work secretaries serving the men, furnishing them with writing paper and envelopes, staging entertainments and looking after their physical, moral and educational needs.

The Y. M. C. A. has 3,400,000 feet of film on the highseas. Machines abroad ship are going at the same time on the upper deck, second deck and perhaps inside for the officers.

What motion pictures mean to the soldiers is shown by this incident which happened on a transport bound for France:

A serial motion picture was being shown. An alarm was given that a U-boat had been sighted. Immediately every man was on deck. A torpedo was launched but missed. The boys waited a few minutes and then one of them turned to an officer and asked, "can we go below now and finish the picture?"

Since March the Y. M. C. A. has provided 40,000 to 60,000 feet of film to each boat. The crew and soldiers enjoy them going over and the wounded coming back. Only the best films are used with Mary Pickford, Douglas Fairbanks, Wm. S. Hart and others as the stars.

General Pershing looks to the American Y. M. C. A. to furnish his men overseas with physical and recreational activities and for this purpose the National War Work Council of the Y. M. C. A. is seeking men who understand recreational sports for service overseas. Men over draft age and not over 50 years, of good moral character, are eligible. W. L. Seawright, 519 First National Bank building, San Francisco, has charge of recruiting physical men on the Pacific coast.

Frank Bradley, comedian, who has appeared before soldier audiences in more than a hundred Y. M. C. A. huts in the fighting zone in France calls it the "flashlight circuit." He says the soldiers brought their pocket flashlights to illuminate the huts. He didn't object to their flashing them in his face but when he carefully led his listeners up to the point where he sprang a "gag" he says it was mighty disconcerting to have the point drowned by a big bombardment.

Not One Chinese In Ten Thousand Has Constipation

except a few drug users, while about 90 per cent of the Americans suffer from this dread complaint. The FONG WAN HERB SPECIALIST gives the following explanation of this phenomenon. "When a Chinese is ill, he immediately consults a Herb Specialist and the cause is removed, but, when an American feels bad, the first thing he does is to take a PHYSIC. This may relieve him temporarily, but repeated doses of such drugs eventually paralyze the bowels. As the bowels then no longer move naturally, physic taking become a habit, the weakened bowels drag, and there is a heavy pressure of gas on the rectum. If the poor victim be a man, the physician will usually tell him that his trouble is piles; if a woman, that it is female trouble."

By drinking the Fong Wan harmless Chinese herbs, hundreds of Americans have not only been relieved of their stomach and bowel troubles, but have been made normal again. Their testimonials are on file.

"Proven Entirely Satisfactory"

Only perfect satisfaction can account for the use of ZEROLENE by the majority of automobile owners.

Leading coast distributors also testify that it is "a most satisfactory motor oil."

They know from the records of their service departments—and we know from exhaustive tests—that ZEROLENE, correctly refined from selected California asphalt-base crude, gives perfect lubrication with least carbon deposit. Get our lubrication chart showing the correct consistency for your car.

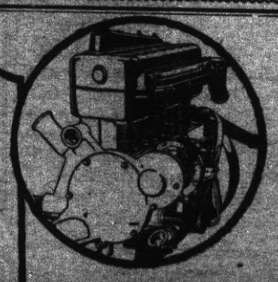
STANDARD OIL COMPANY
(California)



Correct Lubrication for the "L"-Head Type Engine
This, the L-Head type of automobile engine, like all internal combustion engines, requires an oil that holds its lubricating qualities at cylinder heat, burns clean in the combustion chambers and goes out with exhaust. ZEROLENE fills these requirements perfectly, because it is correctly refined from selected California asphalt-base crude.

HUN DEFEAT IS GROWING

The attack began at 4 o'clock under cloudy skies.

The Americans swept up the slope of the hill in the face of the Huns' machine gun fire. They captured a series of enemy machine guns along the ridge and then moved slowly down the ravine.

SCHWAB MAKES HIT

MISSOULA, M ont., July 22.—Charles M. Schwab made a hit with Missoula folk last night when his train stopped here, by leaving his luxurous private car and going forward to make the remander of his journey over the Rockies in the cab of the big electric locomotive that hauls the Milwaukee Overland across the divide. The director general of the Emergency Fleet Corporation was loudly cheered as he climbed into the electric engine at the head of the train and took his place beside the engneer.

Jazz (clank-clank) is to be put (toot-toot) into Great Britains (rattle-attle) fighting spirit (zee-ee) in a manner to make the inspiration of bagpipes seem like a lullaby by comparison (zam).

E. H. Southern in a cablegram from France to the Y. M. C. A. war work council in New York urges the immediate sending over of a jazz band with full outrages of cowbells, rattles, steamboat whistles, cocoanut shells and squaks. After introducing the jazz spirit in "Y" huts in England, the jazzers will go to France and vie with the big guns at the front in noise making.

KILLED AND WOUNDED

Miss Betty Stevenson was instantly killed and Norman Phillips and Miss Ruth Rouse dangerously wounded when a bomb exploded near their Y. M. C. A. motorcar behind the lines on the Western front.

BUSINESS MAN DIES

J. A. Maxwell Adams, a Glasgow business man who went to France for the British Y. M. C. A. met his death when struck by a fragment of a German shell.

GOING OVERSEAS

Bankers, brokers, lawyers, business men, physicians, surgeons, actors and other professional men, are undergoing intensive training at Columbia University to fit themselves for Y. M. C. A. war service overseas.

W. C. T. U. MEETING

The W. C. T. U. will hold their regular business meeting at the Christian church at 2 o'clock tomorrow. All members are urged to be present. Visitors are welcomed. Please bring your thimbles prepared to sew for the navy boys.

LOSES RIGHT EYE

Rev. James Holburn, of Alyth, Perthshire, England, a Y. M. C. A. war work secretary, was dangerously wounded at the front during the recent drive. He lost his right eye.

SHOWS BRAVERY

Le Roy Corbin of New York, a Y. M. C. A. war work secretary in Italy has been twice decorated for bravery in taking supplies forward under fire.

WITH ITALIAN TROOPS

Fifty American Y. M. C. A. war work secretaries are with the Italian troops. They are serving the soldiers and aiding with the wounded.

BAPTISM OF FIRE

Mary O. Clark of Boston, a Y. M. C. A. canteen worker, was under shell fire for seven hours in the Toul sector, in a refuse trench with the soldiers. She showed a fine courageous spirit.

WOUNDED AT THE FRONT

Leonard Hutchinson, a Y. M. C. A. war worker at the front received a compound fracture of the leg when a shell burst in the mouth of his dug-out.

Y. M. C. A. FILLERS

MISSIONARY KILLED

Rev. R. Wellwood, an American missionary, who went to France as a Y. M. C. A. war worker was killed by shell fire on the Western front.

QUARRY WORKER IS VICTIM OF HEMORRHAGE

John Hamilton, a laborer working for the San Pablo Quarries company died yesterday from hemorrhage. He was about fifty years and so far as known has no relatives in this vicinity.

The body is at Bert Curry's undertaking parlors. An inquest will be held by Coroner Curry in the near future to determine the exact causes of the man's death.

WHAT'S HAPPENED? SOMEBODY LEFT YOU A FORTUNE, KIT? YOU SURELY LOOK IT IN THOSE TOGS. THE CHANGE IN EMPIRE

"Don't have to have a fortune, if you know how it's done; in fact, you don't even need the price of a stylish suit like this. Why Cherry's of course! It's a real Style Shop, too—and all you have to do is go up there, ask them to bring out just what you want, a dress, a suit or coat, make your selection from the lots and lots of fine new things, pay a small amount down, walk out with your new togs, pay the rest by the week, and be well dressed and comfortable in the meantime. And that counts, I can tell YOU. At Cherry's you have everything to gain and nothing to lose, because you pay regular cash prices on easy payments, and you have a nice, cool place to shop, besides. Cherry has two shops—a woman's store at 515 13th and one for men at 528 13th." Advertisement.

BALL GAME IS WON BY STEEL WORKERS ON HOME PARK

Deltrich's Richmond Elks relinquished their goat to the Columbia Steel fellows in the baseball game which took place at the First street park yesterday and while this does not mean as was first foreshadowed that this gives the lead in the Central League to the Vallejo Marines, it does mean that Otto has lost a point in his standings.

The one and sole condition that saved the bacon of the local boys yesterday is the fact that the Marines lost to Crockett; otherwise there would be a tie between the Richmond and Vallejo clubs.

However, a baseball team cannot win all the time and Richmond was playing against a heavy handicap yesterday, which accounts for the falldown. Then, too, all the luck seemed to be with the visitors. If a foul or fly came within a hundred feet of a player of the opposition team somebody managed to run and grab it. Bad luck pursued the locals from the start to finish, but why dwell on an unpleasant subject or seek to make excuses. We lost and this is how it all happened, according to the box scores, as tabulated by Scorekeeper Elmer Bevan:
